

TSM ACTION HEALING WORKSHOP: EXAMINING THE (INNER) ROLES OF THE MAN

Friday August 17th – Sunday August 19th 2018

Join Scott Giacomucci, Steven Durost, Ph.D., and a TSI Action Healing Team in this first ever Men's TSM workshop!

The Therapeutic Spiral Model (TSM) is a clinically modified form of psychodrama developed for working safely with trauma, based on classical psychodrama, neuroscience, attachment, and experiential psychotherapy.

Together, we will increase our inner strengths, transform internalized trauma-based roles, and cultivate post-traumatic growth through sociometry, psychodrama, and creative arts therapies.

In examining inner roles, we discern which ones contribute to us being the best men that we can be, while also adding new roles to expand our role repertoires. This workshop is experiential in nature, providing men with a safe place for personal work.

This workshop also fulfills the required personal growth module as part of the Therapeutic Spiral International Certification in Experiential Trauma Therapy.

DATES/TIMES: Friday-Saturday, 08/17 & 08/18, 10am-6pm; Sunday, 08/19, 10am-4pm.

VENUE: Penn State Brandywine Campus, Media, PA. FEE: $495. Early Bird, $450 before 1/02/18.
